

CONSERVATION WALKS

You are welcome to use these permissive footpaths (as shown on the map below). These routes create two new circular walks by linking with an existing footpath along the northern boundary of the Sparham Pools Nature Reserve. The longer route follows a green lane and passes through an area of grassland. You are also free to wander across a small field to the south of Sparham. Please keep dogs under close control as cattle may be grazing on the grassland.

